

PRESS RELEASE

Maj. Charles J. Lollar (Ret) USMC commits his support for the Declaration of Allegiance on Independence Day 2020.

The copy of the Declaration of Allegiance signed by Maj. Charles J. Lollar (Ret) USMC has been published online and available for viewing along with the entire collection of previously curated signatory copies to date at (www.usallegianceinstitute.org).

The U.S. Allegiance Institute is honored as the number of members of the U.S. Armed Forces supporting the Declaration of Allegiance continues to grow. The U.S. Armed Forces understands enforcing Article II is a mission-critical Constitutional mandate ensuring sole-allegiance while non-enforcement is a fundamental threat to national security.

The Declaration of Allegiance is an initiative of the U.S. Allegiance Institute allowing signatories to sign and unite as one allied force for supporting full compliance and enforcement of Article II, Section I, Clause 5 of the U.S. Constitution.

The U.S. Allegiance Institute is currently accepting requests from dignitaries to sign the Declaration of Allegiance in the categories of Law and Military.
